KBYU-TV to air “March of the Penguins”

PROVO, UTAH – Join KBYU-TV on Saturday, March 7, 2009, at 3 p.m., for a special airing of “March of the Penguins,” the Oscar-winning documentary narrated by Morgan Freeman.

Award-winning director and cinematographer Luc Jacquet took the documentary to new heights – and depths – with his first feature film “March of the Penguins,” a stunning insider’s look at the life of the emperor penguin. This family-friendly and inspiring special presents never-before-captured footage of the penguins’ underwater life and explores their steadfast quest for monogamous mates.

“March of the Penguins,” written by director Jacquet and narrated by Academy Award-winning actor Freeman, won the Oscar for Best Documentary Feature in 2006.
